Calendar Application - Requirements

- P0 - Users should be able to login with their Google account.
- P0 - Application should show all the events in a day/week in chronological order in the user's timezone.
- P0 - A user should be able to send an event/invitation to others (in different time zones as well)
-
-
- P1 - A user should be able to automatically setup a meeting with a video-conferencing application.
- P1 - User should be able to check availability of recepients while creating an event/invitation.
- P1 - The application should provide suggestions for the event time considering recepient's availability given a date/date range.
- P1 - A user should be able to import events from a standard ics file
- P1 - A recepient should be able to accept or decline an invite
- P1 - The application should show accepted and decliened recepients for an event.
- P2 - A recepient should be able to propose a new time for the invite